OUR BRIEF

Located on Lower Thames Street, adjacent to Monument and London Bridge, Northern and Shell is a prestigious building overlooking the Thames.

Bayanix won the role of Main Contractor for Halkin's Executive Reception and Lounge residing on the 4th and 8th floors. The design must emulate the building, ambiance and brand, with relaxation and refreshment areas for the Halkin's clientele.

THE SOLUTION

From credenza units and wall panels, through to the library fireplace and suspended feature column; the Bayanix team produced a bespoke design in keeping with this exceptional building and brand.

Design & Key Considerations

- › Installation of reception desk featuring bronze acrylic and vertical LED lighting
- › Rear backlit LED and acrylic feature wall
- › 5.6m bookcase and luxury banquet seating
- › Credenza units and wall panels
- › Library fireplace including suspended feature column
- › Relaxing bookcase and fireplace installation on the 8th floor

THE RESULTS

Bayanix successfully completed the Halkin Reception and Executive Lounge at Northern and Shell, London.

Our in-house design team tailored the perfect opulent ambiance for both the Halkin's staff and clientele to enjoy – meeting both the budget and clients' brief.

“At Halkin, we take pride in providing a solution that fits. Clients look to us for expertise and guidance and our workspace and ambiance must reflect this.

Bayanix immediately impressed us with creative designs and conceptual drawings. The project was timely, professional and executed flawlessly.”
